DISTINCTION: Archetypal forces of nature want you to succeed.

NOTES: How is it possible that Archetypal forces of nature want you to succeed? What is an 'Archetypal force of nature', anyway? Decades of personal at-risk empirical research prepared us to be able to ask this question. It surprised us when it arrived.

We discovered the question backwards, by learning to feel first. This explanation will be given to you forwards, from general to specific. It goes like this: The General Field of Consciousness is everywhere. If you spin Consciousness, you create subatomic particles. Clouds of hydrogen atoms swirl into galaxies and solar systems. Stars ignite, fusing hydrogen into heavier elements, and planets form. Suddenly there is something to interact with the General Field of Consciousness. The interaction between solid matter and the General Field of Consciousness creates a new field, the 'Local Field of Consciousness'. The Local Field of Consciousness of planet Earth is Gaia.

Gaia influences the stepwise evolution of matter on Earth until certain structures spring to life. Human Beings are a material structure that has evolved enough complexity and fluidity to catch enough Consciousness for self-reflection, that is, to be aware of awareness and of being aware. Now the General Field of Consciousness is no longer alone. It has something to talk to which is potentially capable of talking back.

Each Human Being directly interacts with both the General Field of Consciousness AND the Specific Field of Consciousness. This is why humans invented both monotheistic and polytheistic belief systems. Both belief systems are correct. Both belief systems are irrelevant. They are irrelevant because belief is irrelevant when direct experience is possible. The fact that Human Beings fight about who is 'right' simply reveals the degree to which we are uninitiated on the adulthood Path.

As Possibility Management evolved thoughtmaps for navigating both feelings and emotions, we proceeded to implement 3 Phase Healing and the distinction-rich Emotional Healing Processes \(EHP\) of Possibility Coaching. By delivering authentic adulthood initiatory processes in Expand The Box training and Possibility Labs, startling new potentials began to reveal themselves. We were suddenly interacting directly with the Archetypal forces of nature in the Universe. Archetypal Love began accompanying us in properly contexted training and meeting spaces. We started giving the additional forces names so we could deepen our connections with them:

- ☺ Bright Principles are facets of the General Field of Consciousness.
- ☺ Radical Responsibility is applied Consciousness, or Consciousness in action.
- ☺ Archetypal Love is Consciousness of Consciousness in a Space.
- ☺ Nothingness is available in your middle. You sense it when standing in front of the refrigerator with the door open, looking for something to fill your inner void, but nothing in there will do it. Fortunately! You need an inner resource of Nothingness for creation.
- ☺ Archetypal Lineage is your personal infinite source for your most ecstatic work.
- ☺ Earth Coincidence Control Office \(E.C.C.O.\) is Earth's global nonlinear collaboration engine lining up resources and possibilities in your favor.

All of these Archetypal forces of nature are Infinite Resources, very different from the material resources of Earth, which are being consumed and turned into toxic waste by modern culture – the more they are used, the less remain. Archetypal resources function completely differently. The more they are used, the bigger they get.

Why do the Archetypal forces of nature want you to succeed at becoming the space through which they can do their work in the world? The reason is simple: Archetypal forces do not have eyes, hands, feet, or a voice. Archetypal forces of nature ache to offer their treasures to Human Beings on Earth because we are designed in their image! We are able to use their treasures. But the Archetypal forces cannot manifest except through a human interface between them and other humans. This is why the Forces want Possibilitators to succeed! The Archetypal Forces can be most alive through your healing and evolution work with other Humans. Imagine the ecstasy of working with Archetypal forces at your back in your daily life. Are you ready to try it?

EXPERIMENTS:

SPARK249.01 SHIFT TO EXPERIENTIAL REALITY SO AS TO SPEAK IN THE ARCHETYPAL LANGUAGE The world that exists is much larger than the world for which you have words. Your Verbal Reality prison blocks you from entering a wider world. Study the Experiential Reality website and do all the Experiments there. Discover how to enter the Nothingness inside of you, and practice floating there gleefully. Your personal Nothingness is the same Nothingness as in the Gap between Spaces. Once you feel at home talking with other people while you are centered in the Nothingness, it will be quite easy for you to learn to Speak From The Unknown. Follow the instructions. Do the Experiments. Practice often in your Possibility Team meetings.

SPARK249.02 LEARN TO CONSCIOUSLY FEEL SO AS TO SPEAK IN THE ARCHETYPAL LANGUAGE By shifting to Experiential Reality and learning to consciously feel, you can send and receive information and directly exchange impulses with the Archetypal forces of nature! This is the value of learning to consciously feel! To inner navigate and communicate your feelings and emotions, read the entire book Conscious Feelings by Clinton Callahan. Do all the Experiments as you read along. This is more easily and productively done in a formal weekly or twice-a-week Study Group. Learn to inner navigate your feelings until you can freely let your heart speak. A wonderfully supported space to learn to let your heart speak is Heart Gym. Arrange to regularly attend 6 months of Heart Gym while you also do the 3-3-3 exercise on your own. After these 6 months, the world will work differently for you.

SPARK249.03 NOTICE BOTH THE GENERAL AND THE LOCAL FIELDS OF CONSCIOUSNESS After doing both the first and second Experiments above, arrange with a partner to take walks in nature. Find places to sit and close your eyes. Take turns connecting with and reporting your experiences of both the General Field of Consciousness, and the Specific Field of Consciousness of Earth, which is Gaia. Practice this until you can experientially distinguish which Field of Consciousness you are interacting with. Report in detail to your Possibility Team about your discoveries.

SPARK249.04 TALK WITH GAIA – ASK PRACTICAL QUESTIONS OF TRUE NECESSITY AND IMPLEMENT THE ANSWERS Proceed as in the previous Experiment, but this time connect specifically with the Local Field of Consciousness of Earth – Gaia. Come prepared with one Beep Book! page filled with important questions for yourself or for your Team. Write down exactly what Gaia answers to you. If you do not understand, write the answers first, word-for-word, then say, “Gaia, I did not understand. Would you please say it in a different way? Please give me more examples.” Report back to your Possibility Team about your conversations.

SPARK249.05 DISTILL YOUR BRIGHT PRINCIPLES Follow the instructions from Chapter 8 of the Conscious Feelings book, or go to the Bright Principles website, and proceed to distill your Bright Principles from your life. After you write answers to the 30 questions, after you distill your answers down to 3, 4, 5, or 6 Bright Principles, please have them checked by a Possibility Management Trainer. You need at least one Sword Principle, one Heart Principle, and one Soul Principle to have a working set. After this, if you want, the Trainer can hold space for you to choose to serve your Bright Principles and become your destiny in action. This choice is optional. Most Human Beings never choose to serve their Bright Principles. If you choose that, when you look in the mirror or see your reflection, you do not see your ordinary personality anymore. What you see is the space through which your Bright Principles can do their work in the world. It is amazing to experience your life as an activated set of Archetypal forces.

SPARK249.06 ASK YOUR ARCHETYPAL LINEAGE FOR YOUR NEXT STEP TO PREPARE TO JACK-IN At first, authentic adulthood initiatory processes focus on preparing you to jack-in to your Archetypal Lineage. To understand more about Archetypal Lineage, study the Archetypal Lineage and 4 Lineages websites with your Team, and do all the Experiments together. It takes years of preparation to build the Matrix and attain the level of agency in Reality needed to jack-in to your Archetypal Lineage. Why? Look at it from the Archetypal Lineage’s perspective. If you jack-in and your Archetypal Lineage gives you a job to do, such as, call this thought leader, contribute $13,000 to this project, write this book... etc. and you do not have the wherewithal to immediately accomplish the job, then the next job comes down the tube, and the next, and the tube is already jammed up with your incomplete jobs. It is a mess. However... now that you have learned the archetypal language of intuitive impulses and very low-level feelings, you can, starting now, communicate with your Archetypal Lineage. The most valuable approach that we have found is, from time to time, sit down with your Beep! Book, close your eyes, ask to talk with a representative of your Archetypal Lineage, click your Clicker, and after saying, “Hello,” then say, “Please tell me what is my best next step to prepare myself to jack-in to my Archetypal Lineage.” Write down exactly what they say. Then say, “Thank you.” Click your Clicker again, so they are gone. Do the preparation specified, completely and well. Then ask again.

SPARK249.07 BRING A TEAM TOGETHER SO YOU CAN ALL BE YOUR BRIGHT PRINCIPLES AND ARCHETYPAL LINEAGES IN ACTION Trying to work a corporate job, rent a room in a house owned by a modern culture landlord, raise a child attending public school, pay taxes and insurance, the whole catastrophe, is such a burden while trying to become an agent of Archetypal Forces. We recommend bringing together a Team of Possibilitators for your expedition. It can be empowering to formulate your Team as a Gaian gameworld that you create and thrive in together. Learn to build a gameworld from its context to its codex. It could be a Bridgehouse, an Archiarchy Invention Center (AIC), a Training or Initiation Center, a Nanonation, or a new kind of nonmaterial-value initiation-centered radically-responsible Archan gameworld that hasn’t been invented yet. (Remember, this is still the birthing of Archiarchy...) Help each person learn the Archetypal language, achieve Radical Freedom, distill their Bright Principles, transform their Gremlin, and decontaminate their adult egostate. Greet them in the morning as their Bright Principles. Consider adopting other Archan gameworld traditions. Have Fun!
