

SPARK ABY

(Matrix Code: SPARKABY.00 for StartOver.xyz game.)

DISTINCTION: No one can decide for you. And no one can stop you when you decide for yourself.

NOTES: Something is happening. There are individuals who are breaking the rules taking back their fight for consciousness, they are tired of trusting pompous authority figures to take care of them and the precious planet. And they are training themselves to grab hold of how things are and to make the best of it.

These people are from no country, no religion, no social status, no political party. They recognize each other instinctually and they are dropping the false social show and taking back their own authority.

The prize is life itself.
